

It has been my experience that XM radio offers tremendous value to the public. I understand that there has been some concern about the broadcast of local content on satellite radio. Local weather and traffic broadcasts are not just a local concern. Satellite radio allows a traveller destined for another location to immediately check conditions in that area.